CHURCH UNION

TO BE DISCUSSED

Lambeth Appeal Accepted by Canadian Anglican Synod

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 12.—With one dissenting vote, the Lower House of the Anglican Synod last night afternoon concurred with the bishops in their acceptance of the Lambeth appeal on unity, to appoint a committee with other churches on church union. The vote came only after a debate extending over portions of the three days. By this action, the Church of England in Canada for the first time officially signifies its willingness to consult with other denominations as to the possibility of coming to some agreement to make union possible.

PLAN TARIFF FAIR TO ALL CLASSES

Meighen invited. Ottawa, Oct. 13.—(Canadian Press).—Despite the fact that Premier Meighen's Ontario itinerary calls for twenty-two speeches within a fortnight, requests are pouring into his headquarters here for his appearance at nearly every point of importance between Ottawa and Fort Arthur. The itinerary can neither be altered nor enlarged. Owing to the strenuous campaign which Mr. Meighen has carried on in the maritime provinces his voice is said to be showing signs of strain, and his party headquarters state that any enlargement of his speaking engagements in Ontario would be both unfair and dangerous. Mr. Meighen, it is stated, has delivered twice as many speeches in the East as has Mr. King.

On his Ontario tour, Mr. Meighen will be accompanied in turns by Hon. J. A. Stewart, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Hon. R. B. Bennett and Hon. R. J. Meighen. One of the French-Canadian Ministers may also accompany him.

Meighen spoke. St. Stephen, N. B., Oct. 12.—"Let us adopt the best directed to keep us in the British stream in which we now are—the best to keep us from all rocks or peril. That is my appeal to you. It is not a personal appeal. What happens to me matters little. My duty to you is to tell you what I have done and where I stand. Now the responsibility is yours," said Premier Meighen in an address to residents of Charlotte County here this evening.

He spoke in defence of the Government, and declared the construction of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine had received the endorsement and approval of Parliament. He was equally condemnatory of the "Wood-Creer" policy which had its strength in the West. "It is not unfair for me to say that the soil from which the Wood-Creer movement has grown is not so wholly Canadian as the soil in which you and I grew. There has been much immigration into that country, and although those immigrants make good farmers, I do not believe they have the vision of Canada or the heart of Canada in the way the rest of us have. If they had, they will not be treading the way they are to-day. The time has come for the Canadian people to rise and rebuke that movement."

Different views. The Prime Minister was unopposed in his condemnation of the policy of the Liberal Party as laid down in the platform of the 1919 convention at Ottawa. He was equally condemnatory of the "Wood-Creer" policy which had its strength in the West. "It is not unfair for me to say that the soil from which the Wood-Creer movement has grown is not so wholly Canadian as the soil in which you and I grew. There has been much immigration into that country, and although those immigrants make good farmers, I do not believe they have the vision of Canada or the heart of Canada in the way the rest of us have. If they had, they will not be treading the way they are to-day. The time has come for the Canadian people to rise and rebuke that movement."

PREPARE FOR EMPIRE FAIR

Prince of Wales Urges Steps in Britain

London, Oct. 12.—(Canadian Press Cable).—The London Times, commenting on the speech the Prince of Wales delivered yesterday regarding the necessity of starting at once the preparations for the 1923 British Empire Exhibition, presumes no effort will be spared to make the fair a success, adding: "If it is to be of real and lasting service to the Empire it must be on a higher plane and altogether more comprehensive and practical than any of the preceding efforts."

The Times says that despite the large volume of encouraging support there is in some quarters a feeling that the moment is inopportune for the enterprise, but argues that by 1923 the financial position of the manufacturers of the Empire will be much better than it is to-day.

The newspaper proceeds to question whether the choice of Wembley Park as the site for the exhibition is wise owing to its distance from London and suggests that this matter be reconsidered.

A dispatch from London last night said:

Presiding at a meeting at the Mansion House to-day, the Prince of Wales made a strong plea for support for the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley, near London, in 1923. The Prince gave it as his opinion that the preparations for the big exhibition should be proceeded with immediately, in order to provide employment for some of the thousands of able-bodied men who had offered their all for their country.

There should be no delay in starting the work, said the Prince. He asked for an immediate guarantee of £1,000,000 for the work, and declared that nothing would set him on his way to India with rejoicing more than the knowledge that this problem was being tackled and that there were consequently a few thousand happier homes in Great Britain.

Trade. "Great Britain must trade with the whole world," the Prince said. "We cannot or do not choose to trade with us on a sufficient scale, it is time to make a long march forward on the path of imperial development." He declared Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, in an address at the same meeting.

Mr. Churchill said the fact that Great Britain had purchased four-fifths of its food and a similar proportion of raw materials abroad showed the vital necessity of extending the Empire's trade.

"If things go as they are now," declared Mr. Churchill, "it will become increasingly difficult to purchase what is needed from the United States or elsewhere."

"Great Britain," he declared, "has never been bankrupt. She will always find a pathway open for the safety and glory of the British race. There is at this moment open to us not only in the East, but in the West and in all quarters of the globe, a splendid prospect of unlimited potentialities for a worldwide empire," he said. He was not advocating trade within the Empire to the exclusion of trade outside, as that would be impossible. In conclusion, he said he believed the trade depression had passed its worst point.

KNOX, AMERICAN SENATOR, DIED

Formerly United States Secretary of State

Washington, Oct. 13.—Expressions of regret were voiced to-day by men in all walks of life on the death of Senator P. C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, who for so many years had been prominent in the nation's life. The shock of his death was accentuated by its suddenness, the Senator having but just returned from Europe, apparently in his usual health.

Arrangements for the funeral are expected to be made upon arrival to-day of out-of-town members of the family. Both the Senate and House were expected to adjourn upon convening at noon, out of respect to the memory of the Senator, who formerly was Secretary of State. The Senate had on its calendar for early consideration practically his last public work, the peace treaty with Germany, negotiated on the basis laid down in the peace desultory which bears his name.

Senator Knox was stricken suddenly last evening as he was about to enter the dining room of his residence on "K" Street. He died within fifteen minutes without regaining consciousness. Mrs. Knox and his secretary, W. F. Martin, were with him at the time.

Washington Mourns.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Official Washington mourned to-day the death of Philander C. Knox, Senator from Pennsylvania, who died last night suddenly from a stroke of paralysis. From all quarters, executive, legislative, judicial and diplomatic, came expressions of regret at the passing of a notable figure in domestic and world affairs. The Capitol flags were placed at half-mast.

Funeral arrangements were completed to-day, provide for services here and at the late Senator's home in Valley Forge, Pa. Services will be held in the Valley Forge Memorial Chapel Saturday at 2:30 p. m. with President Harding, Cabinet members, Senators and Representatives and others prominent in political and social life in attendance.

Philander C. Knox was Attorney-General of the United States in the Cabinets of Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt, Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Taft and in the interim between those two offices and afterward was United States Senator.

He first came into national prominence when in 1901 President McKinley appointed him as Attorney-General. He retained that office under President Roosevelt until 1904, when he resigned to accept an appointment as United States Senator from Pennsylvania to succeed the late Senator Quay.

As Attorney-General he established a record for railroads to prevent rebates and discrimination in rates.

Mr. Knox was born at Brownsville, Pa., May 8, 1853, and was named after a noted Episcopal bishop, Philander Chase. He was graduated from Mt. Union College, Alliance, Ohio, in 1872, admitted to the bar in 1875, appointed by President Grant as Assistant United States Attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania, but resigned in 1877 and formed a law partnership with James H. Reed, under the name of Knox and Reed, in which he was said to have enjoyed a very lucrative practice.

His home was in Pittsburgh and he had a farm at Valley Forge, Pa. In 1876 he married Lillie, daughter of Andrew D. Smith of Pittsburgh, by whom he had one daughter, Eleanor, wife of J. R. Tindle, and three sons, Reed Knox, Hugh S. Knox and Philander C. Knox, Jr.

HORSE RACE FEATURE

Change in Columbia Programme To-day

A horse race as exciting as the famous one when Man o' War beat Sir Barton, was especially staged on the course at Jamaica, Long Island, for one of the many thrilling moments in "What Women Will Do," the all-star Edward Jose production at the Columbia to-day, Friday and Saturday.

Speed Star, the horse on which is centred the particular attention of several leading characters in the story had been picked as the winner of the Derby, and the bets on him were very heavy. But two plotters doped a lump of sugar for the horse and then bet their all on him to lose.

The signal was given! They were off! The camera, after the manner of the new invention of photographing races, followed the speeding horses around the track, giving to the audience of the motion picture a much better view than those seated in the grandstand.

Speed Star got off to a good start, then fell behind—the poison was taking its deadly effect! Then he spurred ahead! Past one horse, then another, then—

But whether Speed Star won or lost, and what the race meant to those interested who will leave for you to see in "What Women Will Do," in which Anna Q. Nilsson heads a cast including Earl Metcalf, Allan Forrest, George Morfey, Riley Hatch and Jane Jennings.

VARIETY

Vera Gordon, who created such a sensational success in "Humoresque," was seen last night in the new Seelye Picture, "The Greatest Love," at the Variety Theatre, where it will remain until Saturday. This is a dramatic story of mother love, sacrifice and family honor. Intense interest is sustained throughout by means of complications surrounding the death of a theatrical producer known to have been one of the most hated men in the city. There were dozens who might have had a motive for slaying him, but Lantini was found bending over the dead man, and as he also had a motive for revenge, he was arrested and sentenced to death. It is not until the final reel that the startling denouement is made. As the mother, fighting undauntedly against heartrending houses for the balance of the week and at Saturday's matinee.

COMING TO THE CAPITOL

Byron Alkenn is furnishing his patrons with a big surprise this week done up in a small package. Little Bernice Rita Bauer, far from having reached her teens, gives a catchy song and dance offering which makes a big hit with the audience. She is billed as the juvenile movie star, presenting "The Poetry of Motion."

Mr. Alkenn announces that he will shortly have to devote his whole time to the management of the company and will, therefore, present a new leading man. A splendid selection of plans has been chosen for the Winter months, he says.

COMING TO CAPITOL

Probably the most costly array of furs ever seen in a Paramount picture is worn by the principal woman character in "Experience," which was produced under the direction of George Fitzmaurice and which comes to the Capitol Theatre next week. Arrangements were made with a prominent Fifth Avenue furrier for $100,000 worth of fur coats, wraps, stoles and scarfs for use in the picture.

Yvonne Routh, as "Fashion," Nita Naldi as "Passion," Lillian Tashman as "Beauty," and Diana Wheaton, who plays "Beauty," appear gorgeously attired in furs that will give those who see the picture a glimpse of the latest styles in fur pieces. In one scene, "Passion" wears a $25,000 Russian sable coat, and in another, $30,000 chinchilla coat. "Passion" appears in an ermine coat valued at $20,000. "Fashion" displays several fur pieces of great value and "Beauty" is attired in an evening cloak of maner velvet, embroidered in crystal and trimmed with Russian sable.

BLIND DRAMATIC READER

Edward Abner Thompson Gives Fine Entertainment.

Under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League an interesting entertainment was given last evening in the K. of C. Hall, when Abner Thompson gave an exceedingly clever exposition of Parker's "Disraeli." Bishop Macdonald heartily thanked Mr. Thompson for the very excellent entertainment he had furnished the appreciative audience. Rev. Father Wood presided and other entertainers were: Mamie Fraser, Laddie Watkins and Mrs. Charles Wilson. Mrs. Wilson sang "Rememberance," the verses of which were composed by Mrs. Ethel Cameron and set to music by Mrs. Tupper Noble, who played the accompaniment for Mrs. Wilson, who also sang "At the Turn of the Tide."

There are a great many people in Victoria who will remember hearing Mr. Thompson about eighteen months ago. His rich voice and wonderful histrionic ability and the fact that he has developed such striking talent despite the fact that he has lost his sight makes a strong appeal to his audience. In fact, he is so well known on the continent that it is needless to expatiate on his remarkable talent. He has a wonderful repertoire and is recognized as one of the most finished and powerful readers on the continent to-day.

THREE ACTS OF FUN

AT THE PRINCESS

"The Sultan's Daughter" by Mildred Page Players Makes Hit

Back to the good old comedy drama variety of plays which local theatre goers will remember at the Princess last Winter, the Mildred Page Players are again making a big hit with the offerings at the Yates Street playhouse.

A farce comedy in three acts with music in the style in which "The Sultan's Daughter," is billed this week, and from last night's showing and the way in which the audience packed the house and roared with laughter at the funny things that happened the play is well-styled.

A charming and interesting story runs through the play which is nearly one hundred per cent. fun and laughter, as may be well imagined when a perfectly good husband has to face his wife with an explanation regarding a "picture" that came to life, and the picture in the form of Miss Mildred Page does not fail to add to the tantalizing situation to the poor husband's chagrin. The story, however, ends well as all stories do, and everyone is satisfied with the way in which the chapter of incidents works out.

All members of the company play their parts with artistic skill, and the entire offering is a very pleasing one, and one that will be sure to draw big

POPULAR FAVORITE

NOW AT CAPITOL

Mrs. D'Oyly Rochfort Once More Pleases Victorians

An exceedingly well-known and popular artist is Mrs. D'Oyly Rochfort, appearing at the Capitol this week. Known throughout the length and breadth of the province as Phyllis Davis, since she was a tiny tot, in entertainment, concert and revue, she has willingly given of her talents in song and dance at all times, and on many occasions. She is extremely versatile, using her voice in all its sweetness and purity, with true significance of the song's message.

This clever artist is truly of the West, being born in Nanaimo, the daughter of two highly esteemed citizens, Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Davis. Even when only three years of age did she begin to show remarkable aptitude and liking for singing and dancing, and made her first appearance with her elder brother in "Two Little Girls in Blue." Mrs. Rochfort recalls a peculiar incident during the giving of this number. In her dance she tripped, but willing and loving hands dragged her weeping off the stage.

When quite young she came from Vancouver, where she received some vocal instruction from Miss Eileen Maguire (now Mrs. Dally-Morley), to this city and took part in many of the old Victoria Dramatic Club's performances. Her first "big" part one of her favorites, was her "Serena" in the "Chimes of Normandy." This was quickly followed by "Every Kid," written for her by Col. Hobday, and "The Girl of the Year," written for her by Col. Hobday. During the war she joined the "1315 Follies," at Vancouver and took part in many amateur productions in the mainland city. In the Fall of 1915 she left for New York, where she was a great success in "Pom Pom," dancing two "specialties" with the star of the company, Miss Hagan. She appeared at Claridge's in many private entertainments.

At the end of the next year (1916) she went to England, where she married Major D. O. T. Rochfort. Here she became unusually active in public entertainments. She took a leading part in the "All-Canadian" matinee, "Hello, Canada," given at His Majesty's Theatre, London, and shortly after her appearance there she was commended to appear at a private performance at Windsor Castle, where she was the guest of the Princess Alice of Teck. A similar big performance was her part in another popular matinee given at St. James's, in which her fellow artists were many celebrated London stars, including Irene Vanbrugh, Nelson Keyes, Gerald du Maurier, Jose Collins and many others. Since then after her return to Victoria, where she now lives, she has been in constant demand at public functions, and is still as great a favorite as in the days gone by.

She says that five years ago she first tried Pacific Milk, and her only reason for changing at the time was because Pacific Milk was a local product.

And in all the years she has been using it for cooking, for desserts, etc., she has never found a single fault.

We believe it is quite a well-known fact now that the dairies of British Columbia produce better milk than those of almost any other part of Canada, and Pacific Milk is the only milk put up in this Province.

COMPLETES PLAN FOR WELSH CHOIR

The Cymrodorion Society held its first meeting of the Fall sessions, in the Foresters' Hall, Broad Street, on Wednesday, the president, A. Petch, in the chair.

It was unanimously decided to start a Welsh Choir in connection with the society, a committee of ten being elected to organize and carry it out, the members elected on that committee being as follows: Mrs. D. Thomas, Mr. McKee, Mrs. Mason, Miss Lewis, Mr. Gardiner, J. E. Williams, Rydell Lewis, J. O. Jones, Mr. Morgan and B. Thomas. Mr. Gardiner was elected chairman, and Mr. Morgan secretary, and Rydell Lewis conductor. Application for membership is to be made to the secretary.

After the business was finished a good programme of music was given and much enjoyed by the large number present. The president appealed to all present to join the society, and as a result of his appeal twenty-seven new members signed the roll.

Refreshments being served, the meeting was closed, and was voted one of the best ever held in the history of the society.

"You handle large sums of money in this play—a million or more in every act."

"I see," said the actor.

"And you must handle it as if you were used to it."

ADDRESSED ENGINEERING INSTITUTE.

At a meeting of the Victoria branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada, held last evening in the Belmont Building, George R. Alexander, field engineer of the Byron Jackson Iron Works, San Francisco, delivered an instructive address upon "Electric Pumps for Irrigation, Reclamation, and Drainage."

The speaker illustrated his highly-interesting, but technical lecture, with some 52 views of plants installed. Mr. Alexander is in the city in connection with his bids for the firm on the Sumas dyking scheme, and the South Okanagan irrigation project. The meeting was well attended, with E. G. Macriotti, chairman of the local branch, presiding.

SHOULD EMBRACE ALL.

Unless it has been definitely decided to limit the organization to those who have experienced war service we would strongly recommend the prime movers in the formation of a Dominion-wide League for Tubercular and ex-Tubercular Soldiers to expand the qualification for membership in order that the civilian patient and ex-patient may derive such benefits as should flow from the activities of the League. It will be argued and rightly so that the returned man has an immediate case because his condition in many instances has been brought about as a direct consequence of his service overseas; but it should be borne in mind that an organization such as that which is beginning to influence a national programme should contemplate national necessity without discrimination.

One of the first essentials of a body of this character is an ample membership roll and, while we are not in a position to quote the comparative figures of those who are suffering from tuberculosis or whose condition is such as to warrant constant supervision and sheltered employment, it can be assumed that the list of what may be termed civilian unfortunates would completely dwarf the ex-service men's membership. It is obvious that the machinery of the League would require to include a special Department whose duty it would be to deal with all matters peculiar to the case of the returned men. Questions relating to pensions and individual complications arising out of war service would not apply to the civilian member; but there appears to be no reason why the ex-service membership should not welcome its equally unfortunate civilian sufferer. By following out the broader principle the League would be in a position to put a good deal more driving force into its work and the prospects of attaining its objects would be considerably brighter.

It is useless to reiterate the responsibility of the State in respect of its tuberculous population. Tuberculosis is not a popular subject with those who are strangers to the disease. Few people experience real feelings of alarm over the repeated warnings of the medical profession. Fewer still realize that tuberculosis could be stamped out if people and Governments would take as much interest in the health of the human being as it does in that of the country's livestock.

The President of the Tranquille branch of the League sums up the general attitude towards the unfortunate T. B. as follows: "In our disease there are many problems that those not suffering from our special disability cannot realize. We have always found the greatest difficulty in getting anyone in Ottawa to take these questions up with the proper understanding that is necessary to get any sympathetic consideration of them."

What is required is an appreciation on the part of the general public in this country of the tremendous economic loss which the ravages of tuberculosis impose upon this Dominion every year. It is time to get rid of the idea that tuberculosis is a malady from which escape is impossible. The Governments of the country must be made to realize that the consumptive has just as much right to be treated for his complaint and to be looked after when his malady has been arrested as have the mentally afflicted persons whose helplessness differs only in form. The new League deserves a full measure of support; but its real usefulness, as much to its ex-service member as to the country as a whole, will be achieved only by the inclusion of every "eligible T. B." in its roster.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE TO GO TO WASHINGTON.

According to a dispatch from London this morning Mr. Lloyd George will attend the opening sessions of the forthcoming conference at Washington unless unforeseen developments in Great Britain should interfere with the plans already under way. In every part of the British Empire and throughout those countries whose delegates will take part in the momentous gathering next month this eleventh hour decision will be especially gratifying. Jubilation over the prospect of the presence on this side of the Atlantic of the Prime Minister and especially his attendance at the conference does not necessarily imply that without his presence success would be impossible; it means at least that the gathering will have the personal advice of the one man upon whom the world's searchlight has been continually focussed during the major part of the trying time through which it has passed and is passing at the present time. It means also that the people of the United States will have an opportunity of seeing what manner of man is the "little Welsh attorney." It goes without saying that his welcome to Washington will be an outstanding incident of the conference preliminaries. Were he to make an appearance in public, one personal appeal to the American people in behalf of an unsigned understanding between the two English-speaking nations, it would have more effect than years of documentary interchange. Only the Prince of Wales will be able to lay claim to an equal measure of popularity among the people of the United States to that of which the Prime Minister is already assured.

ONLY NATURAL.

It would have been much better if the State of Queensland had gone to London for its recent loan instead of to New York. It means that the Empire's indebtedness to the United States is increased by the amount which the Government Treasurer has borrowed. At the same time no tears may be shed in sentimental apprehension lest the ties which bind this particular section of Australia to the Motherland shall have been snapped by the transaction in point. Queensland has enacted certain legislation in relation to its lands which the financiers of London do not like and they made it clear some time ago that their good offices would be withheld until the legislation in question had either been modified or repealed. Queensland has retaliated by telling London that it prefers to go elsewhere for its money. Sooner or later it will be obvious that London will be able to give better terms and then Queensland will do its borrowing there as it always has done—and without passing legislation contrary to the views of its own Government. In the meantime the discomfited financialist must remember that Great Britain never asks permission where she shall do her business. Her economic system includes the principle of buying in the cheapest markets without sentiment.

HIS HANDS FULL.

Although unemployment in Great Britain is of a sufficiently serious character to stimulate those affected into the sort of demonstration to which London was treated this afternoon recent figures supplied to Mr. Lloyd George and his colleagues indicate that an improvement has been made since July. On the first of that month there were 2,176,000 without employment and nearly one million on short time. By the twelfth of August the figures had been reduced to 1,687,000 and 471,000 respectively, and on the second of last month the total of wholly unemployed stood at 1,527,000 and those on short time had been reduced to 400,000. Figures for the last month do not appear to have been published so far; but it is safe to assume that matters have continued to improve as the general industrial condition has brightened.

Conferences between prominent labor leaders and the Cabinet have been held during the last few days and it is understood that a definite policy calculated to give substantial relief will be inaugurated during the next two or three weeks. To-day's developments indicate the seriousness of the situation and the fact that Mr. Lloyd George did not hesitate to permit the leaders of the demonstration to meet him at his official residence virtually in the midst of one of the most momentous conferences of the century signifies more than an ordinary willingness to listen to every ameliorative proposal. In the meantime the British Prime Minister has his hands full.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It may still be some days before the world will know very much about what is going on behind the doors of the British Prime Minister's residence. So far the net result of the preliminaries has been an order from both sides restraining the opposing factions from doing anything to jeopardize the truce or to prejudice the negotiations which are proceeding at Downing Street. If this means nothing else it means that both sides are in a co-operative frame of mind. As long as that continues and the press and public remain calm the task which confronts the British Cabinet and the representatives of the Daily Eireann will be less difficult.

NEW BURGENLAND PACT IS SIGNED

Agreement Between Hungarians and Austrians

London, Oct. 12.—A protocol of agreement regarding the dispute between Austria and Hungary over the ownership of Burgenland, the strip of territory in West Hungary awarded to Austria, was signed this morning, according to a dispatch from Venice to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The agreement is said to have been reached by Gantffy, Hungarian Foreign Minister; Schober, the Austrian Chancellor; and Marquis Della Torretta, Italian Foreign Minister, who acted as mediator.

London, Oct. 12.—A plebiscite among the inhabitants of Odenburg, the principal city of Burgenland, will be held within ten days, according to a dispatch from Rome to-day to the Central News Agency. Direct financial negotiations between Odenburg and Vienna will be opened within a fortnight, the dispatch added.

GLOUCESTERMEN CHOOSING SCHOONER FOR FALL RACE

GloUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 12.—The Arthur James led the Elsie by fifteen seconds at the turn at the end of the first five miles in the elimination race to-day to select a defender for the international "fishing vessel trophy" won last year by the Eperan. The Ralph Brown was a close third. Other craft in the race were the Elsie G. G. Silva and the Philip P. Manta.

The second leg of the trial was a thirty-mile stretch with a five-mile run home.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1921.
(Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper-Syndicate.)

Venus and Mercury are in benefic aspect to-day, according to astrology. Mars is adverse late in the evening.

This should be a happy wedding day, bringing prosperity and long life.

Theatre and international relations are supposed to be unusually kind while Mercury smiles on the world.

Adversity should make the most of this day's opportunities. The stars promise fame for many not now known, for the season is to offer many surprises.

Newspapers come under a most favorable direction of the stars at this time and they are to gain more and more influence in public affairs. Editors are to receive high honors from the Government.

The promise of a new American literary coterie made at the beginning of the year is now gradually fulfilled, the zealous desire, but few of its members have yet received recognition.

Demagogical international concern is pre-empted in the conjunction of Mars and Saturn, which will take place next month.

Jupiter's conjunction with Mars next month falls when the two planets are rising at London and is said to indicate grave danger of war.

Serious earthquakes are denoted in the ninety-third degree of west longitude. Storms and tornadoes are threatened in Western States, and these may affect several of the Central States.

Physicians and surgeons have the prognostication of a period of great strain and activity.

Engineers are still subject to a direction of the stars that indicates delay and procrastination on the part of the corporations that usually employ them.

There is a sign that is read as presaging large achievements on the part of the scientific men of the country, but their financial rewards will not be in proportion to their accomplishment.

Persons whose birthdate is in May have rather an anxious year in business. This is a time to exercise discretion and to be industrious.

Children born in this day may be rash, headstrong and self-willed, but fortunate in all their undertakings. Girls should be guarded against foolish romance and unfortunate marriage.

Will Carry N. L. and C. Standard in Nanaimo Riding

C. H. Dickie, of Duncan, received the nomination at the National Liberal and Conservative Association convention at Duncan yesterday. On the first ballot the vote stood: C. H. Dickie, 27; Reeve Alexander Lockie, Esquimalt, 18; Mayor F. A. Busby, Nanaimo, 12. On the second ballot C. H. Dickie received 35 and A. Lockie 20. The nomination was then made unanimous for Mr. Dickie.

Mr. Dickie then pledged his loyal support to the principles and policy of the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen—Leonard Tait, R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., and Reeve Lockie spoke. After the singing of the National Anthem, the convention concluded.

PAPER DEALERS IN CANADA LOOK FOR IMPROVEMENT

Montreal, Oct. 13.—That the outlook for the Canadian flat paper trade was considerably improved was the opinion expressed yesterday at the opening of the fourth annual convention of the Canadian Paper Trade Association here. Wholesale dealers and jobbers were present, except newspaper, which is considered a class by itself, were present.

It was pointed out that the paper trade had come through a period of depression without demoralization and that now rock bottom prices had been reached with the prospect that in the future there would be a better demand and increased prices, which would mean renewed prosperity for the paper business in Canada.

POLITICS

How Meighen Policy Works.
Trade Impeded, Revenue Falls.
Those Farmers' Taxes Again.
Few Pay on Incomes.
Popularizing U. F. O. Politics.

How Canada is faring under Mr. Meighen's policy is discussed by The Financial Times of Montreal.

At the end of August Government figures show that the net debt of the country was $2,344,949,085, or $12,831,576 less than it was at the end of July.

The pleasure of contemplating this improvement, however, is taken away when the comparison is extended to the end of August, 1920, and it is found that the net debt has increased no less than $90,465,652 in the twelve months, Times declares.

Nor does it bring comfort to examine further into the revenues of the past five months and the prospects for the coming seven.

Taking the largest item, receipts from customs, Times says, we find that in the five month period the collections amounted to but $43,833,613, which compares with $84,839,868 for the corresponding period of 1920.

That is to say, customs revenues are running at about half the rate of a year ago. With the five months showing a falling off of $41,000,000, the first half year promises to be behind about $50,000,000.

This suggests the possibility that the customs revenues for the current fiscal year may fall behind $100,000,000. In fact, if the various obstacles being placed by Government in the way of imports have any effect, the falling off should be even greater.

Mr. Meighen says that if the Progressives come into power Canada will become a back-dump dumping ground for the United States. This is such an old-time that someone should get to work and set it to music.—Manitoba Free Press.

Out of 194,257 Canadians who paid Federal income taxes last year there were only 16,652 farmers.

Out of the total of $46,381,806 collected through income taxes farmers contributed $611,735.

From these figures either one of two things is true, is the conclusion Toronto Star arrives at.

Either (1) the Government is at fault in not having collected from the farmers, as it has from the rest of us, the taxes which under the law should have been collected;

Or (2) the farmers' case is proven that they are an under paid class and few among them enjoy sufficient earnings to bring them under the income tax law.

Having read the latest exposition of the meaning of the class conscious idea in politics and its relation to the general welfare, we turn with relief to the clarity of the Einstein theory.—Calgary Herald.

Farmers in Ontario are going to take their politics more seriously than ever this Winter. They have adopted a programme of studies under the U. F. O. organization and this as a motto.

"He who knows only his own side of the case knows little of that."

Reading of books, frequent debates preceded by community singing, light entertainment and the giving of plays such as "Nothing But the Truth" are advanced as aiding political advancement and solidity.

The Federal Government will do its best to relieve unemployment, and has already started to do so by providing some chaps with the job of getting elected—a job that's going to keep them pretty busy, too, by all accounts.—Toronto Star.

A Scotsman saw a sixpence lying in the road. Disregarding the traffic, he rushed forth to secure it. He was run over and killed.

C. H. DICKIE HAS LENGTHY RECORD

Government Candidate in Nanaimo Long Before Public

Duncan, Oct. 12.—The candidate of the National Liberal and Conservative Association for the Nanaimo riding, Charles H. Dickie, was born in Oxford County, Ontario, and received his education there.

The attractions of the lumbering industry of Michigan drew Mr. Dickie there and for a time he was log scaler and lumber inspector, book-keeper and telegraph operator. From Michigan the lure of the farther west called and for a short time California was his home.

Thirty-three years ago Mr. Dickie arrived in British Columbia, and after three years in Victoria came to Cowichan to make his home. He spent a few years as railway man on the E. & N. Railway and as hotelkeeper of the Quamichan Hotel. He was a member of the B. C. Legislature 1900-1902. Mr. Dickie has, for the past twenty years been interested in the metalliferous mines of British Columbia and knows the mines of the West Coast from Panama to Alaska. In his journeyings through the different parts of the Province he has been in close touch with farming and fishing and there is not a cannery on the coast that he has not visited.

LLOYD GEORGE NOW PREPARING TO ATTEND WORLD CONFERENCE

The American delegation to the conference on limitation of armaments held its first meeting in Washington yesterday, effected a permanent organization, made a general survey of the data gathered for its guidance, and began discussion of the question of policy that are to characterize the position of the United States Government in the coming negotiations. One of the first specific subjects considered was the problem of open or closed sessions for the disarmament conference. None of those at the meeting would afterwards reveal details of the deliberations, but the impression was given that the United States Government might lay before the delegates after they assemble here on November 11, a proposal that all full sessions of the conference be open to the press. The question, however, is one which the conference itself must decide.

Other and broader questions of policy also were given detailed ex-

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

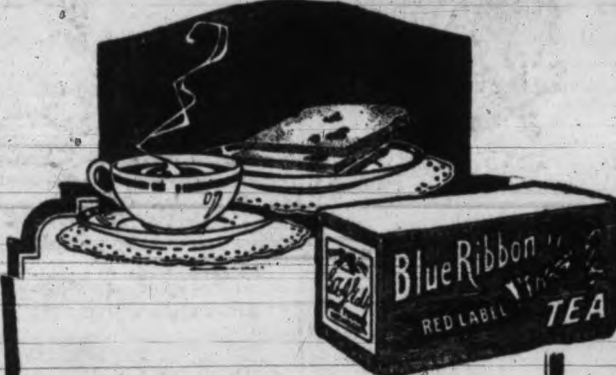

Victoria Daily Times, October 13, 1896

London—The attention of Europe this week has been centred upon the visit of the Czar and Czarina to France and the enthusiastic reception accorded to them in Paris.

Dr. R. L. Fraser was appointed City Health Officer yesterday by the City Council.

A steam ferry is to be operated immediately across the harbor at Point Ellice. Members of the City Council will ride free on the ferry. All efforts to raise the sunken steamer Umatilla have been dismal failures, but further attempts will be made immediately. "It is estimated that it will cost $50,000 to put the vessel into proper condition again."

New Steaming Time For Japanese Ships Set Up by Katori

N. Y. K. Liner Crossed Pacific In Twelve Days Fifteen Hours Between Yokohama and Victoria, Lowering Her Former Fastest Time of Thirteen Days.

Setting up a new speed record for vessels operating under the Japanese flag on the Pacific, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Katori Maru made port yesterday afternoon, completing a passage of twelve days fifteen hours from Yokohama.

In establishing the Japanese record of twelve days fifteen hours between Yokohama breakwater and William Head quarantine station, the Katori Maru lowered her own former record of thirteen days, made shortly after she entered the trans-Pacific service.

Hampered By Fog.

Capt. T. Kusano was highly pleased with the excellent performance of his ship. "The weather was fair until we reached this coast, when fog set in," said Capt. Kusano, in discussing the fast run made by the Katori Maru. "The fog started to shut down on Tuesday night and early on Wednesday morning we were unable to pick up a light on shore. We proceeded under a slow bell and about daybreak sighted Swiftsure lightship through a break in the mist, and after that all was fair sailing."

"Had it not been for the fog off the coast," added Capt. Kusano, "we should have made quarantine several hours earlier."

Capt. Kusano is convinced that his ship could negotiate the 4,000 odd miles between Yokohama and Victoria in twelve days under favorable conditions.

To Speed Up Ships.

The company recently announced its policy to speed up the trans-Pacific schedule, and in consequence the liners of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha may in future be expected to cover the distance in about twelve and a half days. The big N. Y. K. ships have plenty of reserve power and heretofore have never been extended. The Katori Maru has established herself as the speed queen of the Japanese fleet on this route, but there are other vessels in the service that will attempt to match her laurels.

The Katori Maru made this port a day ahead of her regular schedule. She docked here shortly after three o'clock, yesterday afternoon, and brought in 103 passengers, including 34 in the saloon.

Bound to Washington.

Prominent among the saloon travelers was D. Tagawa, member of the Japanese House of Commons for Tokyo and editor of the Japanese newspaper Hochi. Mr. Tagawa is proceeding to Washington as representative of the Tokyo Disarmament Association, an organization composed of influential Japanese who are ac-

Capt. L. B. Douglas Succeeds Capt. Hailey, Who is Taking Holiday

Carrying over eleven hundred passengers all told, the liner Empress of Asia, of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Ltd., was due to clear from Vancouver at 2 o'clock this afternoon on her return passage to the Orient.

The big three stacker is expected to make this port about 8 o'clock to-night to take on passengers and mails before putting to sea.

R., during the latter's absence on vacation. It is expected that Capt. Hailey's vacation will run into six months. C. Claxton, chief officer, will go out as staff captain on the Asia.

The Asia is putting to sea with 1,146 passengers, including 233 saloon, 72 second class, 70 third class and 714 Asiatic steerage.

She will have a full cargo of general merchandise for the Orient.

B. C. SHIPOWNERS ISSUE STATEMENT

Government Scored for Its Indifferent Attitude to Victoria Shareholders

"It is inconceivable that any business organization would take over the assets of approximately one million dollars without having any definite plan as to what they were going to do with these assets," says a statement issued to-day by the Victoria (B. C.) Shipowners, Ltd., on behalf of the directors of the shipbuilding mission, relative to the taking over of the ships under construction by the Federal Government.

"The common courtesy existing between mortgagee and mortgagor," continues the statement, "implies that the mortgagee should be somewhat acquainted with the intentions of the mortgagor if there is a possibility of foreclosure."

"It seems that the Department of Marine has simply stumbled from one action to another, and as far as the shareholders can see they have no definite plan. The course of action is almost unbelievable, but from what has taken place, it would appear that the Marine Department has not the slightest idea of what it is going to do next."

"The most flagrant example of the Federal Government's attitude towards the citizens of Victoria is their latest action in removing the 'Time' from Victoria to Vancouver for the purpose of affecting repairs. The foundation stone of the whole shipbuilding scheme was that it should provide work for the people of Victoria. At a time when work is scarce the Marine Department adds insult to injury by taking away this vessel to Vancouver, in order to have some caulking done, which could very well have been done in Victoria by Victoria men. And not only that, the provisioning of this ship for its long journey across the ocean should also have been done in Victoria, but now after Victoria citizens having provided the necessary money for this shipbuilding, Vancouver is allowed to get a return without any financial risk having been taken by getting the repairs and the provision contract."

"From a close study of the history of the company, the agreement between the Shipowners and the Government and the action of the Government in the last nine months, it would appear that the Federal Government is absolutely blind to any moral responsibility it has towards Victoria citizens under this agreement."

"Taking the question from the financial point of view in a few words, it means this, that the Government had an Employment Relief Fund which it intended to spend entirely on relieving unemployment and distress. They spent some of this money in Victoria by way of advances to the B. C. Shipowners. The shareholders of the company contributed $200,000 of the company's employment Relief Fund and by the Government practically confiscating all the assets of the company, the citizens of Victoria have lost the sum of $200,000."

CANADIAN FREIGHTER WAS SENT AFLOAT AT COUGHLAN PLANT

Capt. Carl Bissett, of Canadian Importer, to Take Command of New Vessel

Vancouver, Oct. 12.—The Canadian Government Merchant Marine freighter Canadian Freighter was launched with appropriate ceremonies yesterday afternoon, from the Coughlan plant of J. J. Coughlan & Sons.

The completion of this steamer will end the present building programme of the firm and will mean a total of 12,100 deadweight tons of standard steel freighters built by the company. There are at present no contracts for further new work, but it is hoped some may be arranged in the near future.

The Canadian Freighter is the twenty-first hull launched by the firm. She is a steel vessel of 3,350 d. w. tons, with single screw, a speed of 15 knots, and oil fuel furnaces. She is fitted with refrigeration space of 9,000 cubic feet, and will go on the Australia, New Zealand and Fiji run.

Captain Carl Bissett, master of the steamer Canadian Importer, has been appointed master of the Freighter, and was present at the launching.

The ceremony was successful in a statement by Mrs. W. A. Wallace, sponsor, broke the champagne bottle with grace and efficiency, and the great mass of fabricated steel slid smoothly to the water and the waiting tugboats "slid" along the outfitting dock of the company, beside her sister ship, Canadian Transporter.

Mrs. Wallace was accompanied by Mrs. E. Bissett, Mrs. J. Patterson. Among the invited guests were Captain Bissett, W. A. Wallace, husband of the sponsor and resident overseer, for the department of marine and navy, the British corporation, John Coughlan, S. H. Coughlan, B. C. Keeley, Captain W. B. Finglass, T. Loudon, Mayor Gale, Harbor Commissioner A. R. Macdonald, A. T. H. field, P. P. Rainford, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. S. H. Coughlan and many others.

Sidney, Oct. 12.—The social event of the week in Sidney was the marriage of Miss Edna Parkes, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parkes, of Marine Drive, Sidney, to Mr. John Gehrke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gehrke, of Port Angeles, Washington. The ceremony was performed at 8 p. m. on Wednesday in St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Sidney, of which the bride was a member, by the Rev. J. W. Storey, the rector, the impressive and dignified ceremonial of the Anglican Church being read. The church, which was tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, was crowded to the doors with friends and well-wishers of the bride, and during the ceremony the organ played in several beautiful community hymns appropriate to the occasion.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

The bride was attired in white, charming satin and veil, and carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas, maiden hair ferns and snapdragons. She was attended by her sister, Miss Phyllis Parkes, who wore a dress of white organdie and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and chrysanthemums.

The groom was supported at the ceremony by Mr. George Dickson, of Sidney. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride, who lived here many years, received many beautiful presents. The happy couple left on the midnight boat for Seattle, where the honeymoon is to be spent, later going to Port Angeles, Wash., where they intend making their future home. The groom, who is well known in athletic circles in Sidney, where he was a member of Sidney's lacrosse, football, baseball and basketball teams, once served with the American Expeditionary Force.

A countryman came up to London to visit some relatives and to see the sights. He remained until patience on the part of his hosts, a married couple, had ceased to be a virtue.

"Don't you think, my dear fellow," remarked the husband one day, "that your wife and children must miss you?"

"No doubt. Thanks for the suggestion; I'll send for them,"—T.H.B.

Mrs. Lilian Taylor Tells How Cuticura Healed Her Baby

DEAN OF SHANGHAI ON VISIT TO CITY EN ROUTE HOME

Very Rev. Dean Symons, of Shanghai, is registered at the Empress Hotel, en route to China after a visit to the Old Country.

Proceeding to China direct from Cambridge University, the Dean has had a long clerical career in that country, and two years ago became Dean of the Anglican Cathedral in the International settlement.

He is now accompanied by Mrs. Symons and Miss Symons. One of their objects in visiting Europe recently, after an absence of sixteen years, was to visit the graves of two sons who were killed in France. They found the grave of one of them at Amiens, but not that of the other, who was killed in the fighting round Cambrai.

The Dean and Mrs. Symons have met a number of the local Anglicans during their visit to Victoria.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MR. CROW'S REVENGE.

Mr. Crow had been watching for a chance to pay Mr. Dog for upsetting his plans that day in the cornfield, when he had barked so loudly that Mr. Man came out with his gun and Mr. Crow could fly away the gun went "Pop!" and greatly upset the nerves of Mr. Crow.

What Mr. Dog was barking about really wasn't on account of Mr. Crow at all. He had not noticed him, for under the stone wall Mr. Dog had seen Mr. Rabbit hop out of his sight and also his reach. But the barks had brought Mr. Man with his gun and, seeing only Mr. Crow, he popped the gun at him.

But this did not matter at all to Mr. Crow. He did not know anything about it anyway, and now every day he watched Mr. Dog, whenever he happened to see him, to find a way to bother him, if he could.

It was some time after this happened that Mr. Crow from a telegraph wire, where he was sitting, saw Mr. Dog trotting along the road with something in his mouth.

Mr. Crow watched and then he flew over to where Mr. Dog had disappeared under a rail fence into the garden, and by the wall on the other side he saw Mr. Dog dig a deep hole and hide in it a very fine-looking bone.

"Stole it, I am sure he did," said Mr. Crow, forgetting that he was the worst of thieves himself. But right then Mr. Crow was struck with a thought. He had a plan by which he could pay Mr. Dog for barking that day he was in the cornfield.

Mr. Crow waited until Mr. Dog had the bone buried, and the earth nicely covered over it, and Mr. Dog was trotting off home. He then flew over to the stone wall and took a look about, so he would be sure of the very spot where the bone was hidden.

In a short time Mr. Crow was at a farm some distance down the road, where there lived Mr. Towser Dog.

Mr. Crow did not care any more for Mr. Towser than he did for any other dog, but it was the one that lived the nearest to the spot where the bone was buried, so he called on him.

Mr. Towser Dog was napping, with his head poked out of his house, when Mr. Crow arrived, and the loud "Caw, caw" that he gave made Mr. Towser open his eyes.

"Where is your Master?" inquired Mr. Crow, wishing to be sure he was in no danger before he told his secret to Mr. Towser.

"Has gone off and left me at home," whined Mr. Towser.

"Are you chained?" inquired Mr. Crow.

"Of course I am not chained," replied Mr. Towser, jumping up to show he was free. "Master never chains me. He knows I would not run away. I have the place to guard, don't you see?"

"You would not run away even for a nice bone if you knew where there was one, I suppose," said Mr. Crow, cocking his head to one side.

"Well, I would not say I wouldn't if I was certain where it was," said Mr. Towser.

Mr. Crow told him and off he ran. He found the bone and was back before his master returned, but in the meantime Mr. Crow had a feast in the cornfield and when he went to bed that night he felt he had done a good day's work.

It was some time after that Mr. Crow was on the watch saw Mr. Dog scratching and digging where he had buried the bone and acting in the most excited manner because he could not find it.

"Caw, caw," cried Mr. Crow. "The next time you see me in the cornfield perhaps you will not bark and try to get me shot; caw, caw."

But though Mr. Dog heard him, he did not in the least know what Mr. Crow meant, and that is the way it often happens, that those who work hard to get revenge for some fancied wrong fall as far short of getting it as Mr. Crow did. For what he really wanted was that Mr. Dog should know he was to blame for the bone being gone and Mr. Dog never did know it.

VICTORIA WEST GIRL WED LAST NIGHT

Marriage of Miss Florence Smith and T. E. Hopkins of Vancouver

The interior of St. Saviour's Church was prettily decorated last evening for the wedding of Florence Isabel Audrey, third daughter of the late S. McCully Smith and Mrs. Smith, of 403 Dundas Street, and Thomas Eustace Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hopkins, of Hopkins Landing, Howe Sound. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Connell in the presence of a large congregation of friends. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Paul Smith, of New Westminster, and wore a lovely wedding gown of ivory satin with paniers edged with lace and orange blossoms. The full court train of satin was edged with fine lace and embroidered with a silver spray of daisies. A beautiful lace veil with embroidered edges was arranged in mob cap fashion and fell in soft folds to the edge of the train. The bride's bouquet was of calla lilies tied with silver, and her only ornament was a string of pearls.

Miss Jessie K. Smith attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a long waistcoat frock of white satin chambray with crushed silver girdle caught with pale blue and silver French flowers. Her bouquet was of gypsophylls. The other two attendants, Miss Gladys Taylor and Miss Louise Charlebois, were gowned alike in long-waisted frocks of white satin with draped girdles. The bride's silver leaves in their hair, and carrying bouquets of bebe roses and fern. Dudley Green supported the bridegroom and Major S. Okeil and R. R. Smith, the bride's brother, were ushers. During the signing of the register Miss Middleton sang very sweetly "O Perfect Love."

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, the young couple receiving their guests under a wedding veil of white roses and dahlias. A buffet supper was served in the dining-room, which was effectively arranged with autumn flowers and foliage. The young couple received many beautiful gifts from the bridegroom's gift to the maid-of-honor was a gold bar pin, to the bridesmaid and flower girl, rings set with turquoise and emeralds, to the best man gold cuff links, and to the ushers silver pencils. After a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins will make their home in Vancouver. The bride's travelling suit was of navy duvetyn trimmed with squirrel, with grey hat and navy blue cape.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith and Mrs. C. Robson, of New Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hopkins, of Hopkins Landing, and Miss Alice Murchison, of Burnaby.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY HONORS SECRETARY

The Victoria Operatic and Dramatic Society, at a meeting in its Little Theatre, Oak Bay, last night, paid tribute to the work of its secretary, Dermott W. H. Barry, who will leave for England next week. As a token of the Association's appreciation, a cheque, Herbert Kent was the popular choice of the Society for Mr. Barry's position.

A particularly fine programme followed last night's meeting of the Society, the big feature being a sketch entitled "Have You a Little Harem?" The five actors who ably presented this sketch were: Miss Dorothy Stuart Robertson, Miss Vivian Coombe, Ray Castle, Bruce Bredin and Gordon Cameron.

Miss Eva Hart, as usual, was enthusiastically received when she sang "Tea Garden" and "My Treasure." "In the Garden of Four Heart" was the title of a delightful duet rendered by Miss Moreton and Miss Gladys.

Thorpe, Mrs. Walter McMicking's "Peggy O'Neill" also proved a popular number as did Mr. Meadows' solo. Miss Clara Powell appeared for the first time before the Society and showed that her talent as an elocutionist would be a decided asset to the organization.

Dancing concluded the evening. Music was supplied by the Elite Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Bick.

PROFESSOR WOOD LECTURES HERE

Speaks on "Thought, Power and Its Effect."

Professor Ernest Wood, who is Professor of Physics, and Principal of the Sind National College, Hyderabad, India, who has already stated is now giving a series of philosophical lectures here, spoke on "Thought Power and Its Effect."

Mr. Wood said among other things that thought was a fundamental power of consciousness. It was indeed the principal of activity in consciousness turned towards matter. It could not be truly said, for example, that he lifted his arm, but that he thought, and the arm moved because the power of thought was in some mysterious way related to the matter and energy of the outer world organized in the form of his brain and body. It was thus not extraordinary on general principles that where there is thought, there was power, and he himself, like many other students of the occult had, in the most scientific manner verified the existence of many unusual powers of thought.

Professor Wood described some interesting experiments in his own experience in England and India. He also related some more complicated experiences with reference to the phenomena of dreams, and the projection of what is called the astral body, and explained some of the mysteries and powers of those subconscious operations in people's minds which surround what might be called the spotlight of conscious attention. Finally, he assured his audience that the study and development of the hidden powers in man would surely play a great part in the future of science and even of daily life. He asked his hearers to remember that what he had been speaking about was only one aspect of theosophy, which concerned itself with many different aspects of human inquiry all tending to the attainment of universal peace and the brotherhood of humanity.

Mr. Wood resides permanently at the headquarters of the Theosophical Society of which he is president. He is the world famous president, at Madras in India, and he is on a year's lecturing tour round the world. He has spent several months in China and Japan, and after touring the United States and Canada will proceed to the British Isles and back to India via France, Switzerland, Italy and Egypt. His lectures here deal with "The Ceasing of Sorrow" and "Theosophy, Individual and Collective."

Dr. Black affirmed that schools are maintained by the public in order that under the teacher's watchful supervision children may acquire not only certain skills and information essential to their future, but also in-efficient re-education towards and intelligent understanding of the present social system, but also and primarily under the result of habitually living aright during their most impressionable years our young citizens may develop permanent habits of right living. Among habits to be formed will be that of recognizing and following definite and rational purposes, the habit of comparing the relative worth and importance of different things and modes of procedure, and the habit of orderliness in thought and action, the habit of accuracy, regularity and punctuality, the habit of self control and self reliance, the habit of mutual helpfulness, courtesy and consideration, and the habit of reverence for whatsoever things are true and beautiful and good.

Dr. Black's thesis is that while our course of study is superior to some others, one of its chief faults is that it misleads teachers and pupils regarding the guiding aims of education. That this course of study should be stated in terms of ends not of means. In terms of habits and not merely information.

A corollary of this thesis would demand that children be recognized as individuals as well as members of a community. Sad to say the machine of the common school grinds out the differences that constitute individuality and the individual is forever more just that much less an individual.

The remedy for this soul crushing and time wasting uniformity is that the people must require the best possible teachers and give them the freest possible hand.

Our system does not provide an adequate supply of thoroughly trained teachers. To rectify this crying need, this province does not spend as much in training its teachers as do the other provinces, and drastic reform in this regard is an immediate necessity.

Dr. Black laid great stress on the need for an efficient system of local supervision. School boards should exercise an executive function through a superintendent or school manager, the board to adopt or reject policies.

A new workable attendance regulation, is according to the speaker, required in order that the state may educate every child. Dr. Black also advocated junior high schools to include the last two years of the present elementary school, and the first year of the present High School with a suitably modified curriculum.

Dr. Black thinks that in the near future the people and their government must pay considerably more than in the past for the maintenance of education if the true principles of economy are to be observed.

A very heartfelt vote of thanks to Dr. Black for his splendid address was passed by Mrs. Geo. Henderson, and seconded by Mrs. Fisher.

A letter was read from Mrs. Palmer, Cowichan Bay, asking the Institute to ask Dr. Warnock to let Mrs. Carter, of Victoria, judge at the recent Fall Fair, visit Duncan and give a lecture on jams, jellies, etc. in the near future.

The dressmaking class was organized, and will start next Monday.

The Institute gave one dollar per month to the Traveller's Aid Fund of the Y. W. C. A., and a six months' report of the work done was read. They have met 317 boats, 268 trains and 332 people have been assisted, several of whom would have been in dire straits without someone to meet and look after them. Mrs. T. Pitt was the hostess for the delicious tea served.

Dr. Black's thesis is that while our course of study is superior to some others, one of its chief faults is that it misleads teachers and pupils regarding the guiding aims of education. That this course of study should be stated in terms of ends not of means. In terms of habits and not merely information.

CONSIDERS STATUS OF B. C. SCHOOLS

Dr. Black Offers Interesting Commentary on Situation

Duncan, Oct. 12.—The monthly meeting of the Cowichan Women's Institute was held yesterday afternoon with the president, Mrs. F. S. Leather, in the chair.

Dr. Black, principal of the Duncan High School, gave a most comprehensive and exceedingly interesting address on the educational system of British Columbia. As a man who had been in intimate touch with education in Ontario and Saskatchewan, Dr. Black was able to speak authoritatively on the various systems. In his opinion British Columbia closely approaches the best extant system in Canada. Our rural schools had a start some years ago that was the envy of educationalists in the other provinces but of late years—teachers' salaries in the rural schools of eastern provinces have improved and conditions are better so that in comparison our rural schools have room to improve.

The grouping of schools in the municipalities of British Columbia under a supervisor might well be considered by some of the older provinces. The municipal school board replacing the isolated petty independent trustees is to be commended, he said.

Good Features Here. The teaching of agriculture by qualified specialists, the supervision of the health of the children by school nurses shows an advance of mind by those in authority. This province is also conspicuous in wisely giving aid to meet the crying need of children suffering from mental and physical handicaps.

Among the defects, Dr. Black considered the frequent removal of teachers from one school to another, the loss of continuity of instruction, the lack of properly trained teachers, and the whole surroundings of the isolated rural schools.

Five Requirements. The five most important requirements, the speaker considered, for an adequate efficient school system were:

1. It must provide a course of studies fitted to the special needs of the children of the state, and of the community of which he is a part, and adapted with deliberate skill to the attainment of those ends for which schools exist.

2. It must provide an adequate supply of thoroughly trained teachers.

3. It must provide for efficient local supervision and administration without making an unreasonable demand upon the time and services of unpaid officials.

4. It must ensure its advantages to all the children of the state, unless prevented by causes necessarily and permanently insurmountable.

5. It must make such financial provision for the maintenance of the schools as their needs require, and must provide for the fair distribution of the financial burden thus entailed.

One of the chief reasons for a free compulsory education is that a state governed by popular vote educates its young citizens to preserve itself. The children of school age comprise 25 to 30 per cent of its population and in one brief decade this youthful army will be in active exercise of the rights and duties of citizenship. Two thousand years ago Cleopatra warned her contemporaries that the formation of the state was the right education of its youth. The Romans failed to grasp this truth, their mighty empire in consequence has become a far away memory.

The School's Function. Dr. Black affirmed that schools are maintained by the public in order that under the teacher's watchful supervision children may acquire not only certain skills and information essential to their future, but also in-efficient re-education towards and intelligent understanding of the present social system, but also and primarily under the result of habitually living aright during their most impressionable years our young citizens may develop permanent habits of right living. Among habits to be formed will be that of recognizing and following definite and rational purposes, the habit of comparing the relative worth and importance of different things and modes of procedure, and the habit of orderliness in thought and action, the habit of accuracy, regularity and punctuality, the habit of self control and self reliance, the habit of mutual helpfulness, courtesy and consideration, and the habit of reverence for whatsoever things are true and beautiful and good.

Dr. Black's thesis is that while our course of study is superior to some others, one of its chief faults is that it misleads teachers and pupils regarding the guiding aims of education. That this course of study should be stated in terms of ends not of means. In terms of habits and not merely information.

A corollary of this thesis would demand that children be recognized as individuals as well as members of a community. Sad to say the machine of the common school grinds out the differences that constitute individuality and the individual is forever more just that much less an individual.

The remedy for this soul crushing and time wasting uniformity is that the people must require the best possible teachers and give them the freest possible hand.

Our system does not provide an adequate supply of thoroughly trained teachers. To rectify this crying need, this province does not spend as much in training its teachers as do the other provinces, and drastic reform in this regard is an immediate necessity.

Dr. Black laid great stress on the need for an efficient system of local supervision. School boards should exercise an executive function through a superintendent or school manager, the board to adopt or reject policies.

A new workable attendance regulation, is according to the speaker, required in order that the state may educate every child. Dr. Black also advocated junior high schools to include the last two years of the present elementary school, and the first year of the present High School with a suitably modified curriculum.

Dr. Black thinks that in the near future the people and their government must pay considerably more than in the past for the maintenance of education if the true principles of economy are to be observed.

A very heartfelt vote of thanks to Dr. Black for his splendid address was passed by Mrs. Geo. Henderson, and seconded by Mrs. Fisher.

WILL CONFER WITH VICTORIA CHAMBER

Nanaimo and Railway Schedule on E. & N. Railway

Nanaimo, Oct. 13.—There was a good attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Nanaimo Board of Trade Tuesday evening.

H. E. Beasley, general superintendent of the E. & N. Railway, wrote the board in reply to a letter from the local secretary asking that a longer time be allowed between arriving and departing of north and south-bound trains.

The object was to allow more time to passengers from outside points in Nanaimo before being obliged to return home. Mr. Beasley stated that at present his company felt any change was not advisable, as by altering the train schedule the proposed new time would conflict with the boat schedule.

The communication was discussed at length, and it was the consensus of opinion that if a committee interviewed the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and secured the influence of that body, the railway company might take the matter under further consideration.

A committee was appointed consisting of Messrs. McPherson, Coburn and Kidd to interview the Chamber of Commerce. The secretary will write making arrangements for the meeting.

HURT IN ACCIDENT.

Duncan, Oct. 12.—E. W. Kilby, assistant principal of Duncan Consolidated School, suffered a painful accident on Sunday afternoon. He was chopping some wood in his yard when the head of the axe flew off, severely cutting his thumb and first finger. Several stitches were necessary, and he was not able to use his hand for some time.

Ohio Man Lost a Year on Account of Stomach Trouble; Is Now Well and Strong

"Only a man who has to work for a living knows what it means to get back on the job after not hitting a lick of work for a whole year. I lost twelve months straight time on account of stomach trouble. One of the worst cases I guess any man ever had. Talcum only made me a well man again, but built me up 19 pounds in weight. I am writing all my friends in other cities to tell them of the wonderful news."

The above statement was made by George H. Lowe, well-known employee of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., living at 451 McGowan Street, Akron, Ohio.

Talcum is sold in Victoria by Duncan E. Campbell and other druggists. (Advt.)

BURY VICTIMS OF RESERVE TRAGEDY

Rev. C. M. Tate Conducts Funeral; Old Couple Took Liquor Home

The Rev. C. M. Tate returned at noon to-day after conducting the funeral obsequies over the remains of the unfortunate Indians at Saanich, who were burned to death in their house on the night of Tuesday. He was accompanied by Provincial Chief of Police Wilkie, and Dominion Constable O'Connell, who made out a burial inquiry as to the cause of the fire and the death of Shar Sha. Buck ("Jack Quack") and his wife. There was no evidence forthcoming, more than that the elderly couple had visited Victoria the preceding afternoon and took back with them some Chinese liquor. It is supposed they either tried to light their fire, or knocked over a lamp.

A very large concourse of Indians attended the funeral from the various Saanich reserves. Mr. Tate warned the congregation against the use of the white man's, or the Chinaman's, furniture, which he pointed out had been the cause of more deaths among the Indian people than all the diseases which had visited their tribes.

Military 500 Parties.—Some of the lodges of Odd Fellows in this city, together with the Rebekahs, have started preparations for the entertainment of the Grand Lodge here next June and in order to draw the members and their friends together, have planned a series of military 500 parties in the large hall of Douglas Street, to be held every Saturday night. The first of these parties will be held next Saturday, under the same capable management as previous affairs.

Native Daughters Met.—In the absence of Mrs. W. W. Brentzen, the chief factor, the chair at the meeting of the Native Daughters, P.O. No. 2, was taken last night by Mrs. Burns. Plans were made for the holding of a military five hundred tournament on November 1. A standing vote of sympathy was passed to Mrs. Fisher Herbert Bullen, niece of Mrs. Dennis Harris historian of the Club, in her recent bereavement. Balloting for seven new members took place.

Country Fair a Success.—Many patrons took advantage of the Country Fair convened at Christ Church schoolroom yesterday afternoon to purchase fresh country produce and at the same time help the funds of the Ladies' Guild of North Trinity Church, Saanich. The various stalls were quickly cleared of their goods, while the tea room proved a most popular rendezvous. The Fair was held again this afternoon with equal success and the ladies are well pleased at the result of their novel enterprise.

Liquor is Transferred.—Magistrate Jay qualified for a pair of white gloves in the police court to-day, there being no cases before the court, for the first day in the past several weeks. A large consignment of liquor, 27 sacks of some 180 bottles of assorted whisky and liquors, were conveyed to the Court Registry to-day under a heavy police guard. Five constables guarded the consignment, which is valued at wholesale price in the neighborhood of some $1,735. The liquor was transferred pending an appeal by George Brooks and George McIntosh, who were each fined $100 in the police court for being in possession of unsealed liquor, and the liquor ordered confiscated. The defendants stated that they had the liquor for export to Mexico, and were about to ship it on to a small sloop when they were halted by two of the local police.

Master Creator of Characters Who Live

HALF A CENTURY has passed since Charles Dickens forever laid aside his pen over the unfinished manuscript of "Edwin Drood." Yet Dickens is enshrined in the hearts of every book lover; his characters live with us in our daily lives; and his works are published, re-published, and published again, putting to shame the so-called "best sellers," whose frothy fame is quickly dimmed by the radiance of the Master Creator of Characters Who Live.

More than a quarter of a century ago, L. E. Waterman introduced to lovers of easy, smooth, continuous writing

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

To this invention of L. E. Waterman, as to the immortal works of Charles Dickens, the passing years have brought increasing popularity. In character, convenience and efficiency, Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen stands supreme. Ephemeral improvements and vaunted best-sellers but accentuate the lasting superiority and satisfaction of using the Waterman's Ideal. There is a Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen to suit every hand and every individual character of hand-writing. Three types—including self-filler—

MINISTERS WANT DISABILITIES TO GO

Again Appeal For Legislation to Wipe Out Old Laws Restricting Them

Ministers of Victoria, headed by the Rev. Dr. W. Leslie Clay, appeared before Premier Oliver at the Parliament Buildings this afternoon and asked for the removal of a number of statutory and other disabilities under which ministers of the gospel labor in this Province.

They asked that legislation be brought down at this session of the House to wipe out many of the clauses in old legislation which they asked operate to the disadvantage of clergymen as a class and place unnecessary restrictions on them as professional men.

Similar applications have been made by the Ministers in the past, but no action has resulted from their appeals.

Among the disabilities the ministers complain of are those preventing them from being elected to the police commission, school board and city council.

TOM BOOTH NOW UP

Nanaimo Editor Likely to Be Backed For Liberal Nomination.

Nanaimo city Liberals are holding their convention to-night to decide on whom they want for their candidate in the Federal campaign against C. H. Dickie, the N. L. and C. nominee, to instruct delegates to the nominating convention at Duncan Saturday accordingly.

Tom Booth, editor of The Nanaimo Free Press and an ardent Liberal, is likely to get the Nanaimo endorsement.

R. E. Gellis and Councillor Frank Simpson were last night chosen by Saanich Liberals to represent them on the Nanaimo-Saanich Liberal executive.

In the absence of A. D. Macfarlane, president in Vancouver, Mr. Simpson, who is vice-president, presided.

F. A. Pauline, M. P. P., for Saanich, took part in the discussion and made the speech of the evening.

Saanich delegates to the Nanaimo Liberal nominating convention at Duncan Saturday were chosen last night as follows: F. A. Pauline, M. P. P., Norman Whitaker, O. W. Pauline, J. C. Macdonald, Frank Simpson, James Brown, Mrs. Humphrey, E. Orr, R. E. Collie, T. McKennie, A. D. Macfarlane, J. S. Brandon, J. M. Miller, B. B. Moore and Percy James.

A well-known lawyer was chiding a legal friend for passing him in a motor car without recognition.

"Sorry I didn't see you," said his friend, "Was—driving?"

"Yes," said the lawyer.

"Well," rejoined his friend, "when—is driving you think only of your Maker and not of your earthly friends?"

A judge was trying a case in which there was a dispute about a water supply. As he had just partaken of a hearty luncheon, one counsel's argument was decidedly long-winded, he began to nod suspiciously. All at once the barrister thundered out: "What we want, my lord, is water."

"Very little in mine, please," very little in mine," said his lordship, starting up suddenly.—Tit Bits.

CROMIE SUMMONS PREMIER TO TRIAL

Oliver Surprised at Being Asked to Give Evidence for Accuser

Premier Oliver to-day received a summons to appear in court in Vancouver to-morrow to give evidence for R. J. Cromie, publisher of The Vancouver Sun, in the libel action brought against The Sun by Ch. R. E. Campbell, publisher of The Vancouver World, for attacks on the bargain which Mr. Campbell made with the Liquor Control Board whereby he turned over his storage warehouse to the Board for $150,000.

The Premier will likely go to Vancouver to-night to take part in the trial.

He said he was surprised at being summoned to give evidence for Mr. Cromie and The Sun, as The Sun has been attacking the Government because of the Liquor Board deal.

ROTARIANS HEAR OF BOOTS, JAMS, SUIT CLEANING

Members Tell Inside Story of Their Business

How boots and jam are manufactured and cleaned was explained to the Rotary Club at its luncheon to-day in three snappy talks by club members.

At its cost of $100, the material in a pair of solid brogue shoes, Rotarian P. Smith, proprietor of the well-known Post Street shoe manufacturing and repairing shop, told the club. "And it takes a man a whole day to make the shoes. Thus, paying a living wage, it costs a manufacturer $15 to turn out a pair of shoes by hand. These of course will fit the person for whom they are made and will be manufactured of solid leather."

"The other day a lady came into our shop and wanted some shoes made for her. Her ankle measurement was the same as mine and I wear a ten. She wanted the shoes made on the same lines as a pair she had picked out at a store. When they were made she admitted they fitted her but refused to take them because they were too big! In fact, it's next to impossible to manufacture shoes for women."

Misses.

"Ninety per cent. of men who buy shoes in stores are mis-fitted because the man who designs the shoes for sale in the store knows nothing about fitting and feet. He designs them purely for style."

Shoes made to fit particular feet would last twice as long as shoes bought at random. Mr. Smith declared. By making shoes to fit people properly it was possible to correct such defects as weak ankles and other foot troubles, he said.

Jack Gardiner, proprietor of the Victoria Dye Works, described in detail how men's and women's clothes are "dry-cleaned" in an up-to-date cleaning establishment. Boots were cleaned in a large contrivance, much like a washing machine, but filled with gasoline, he said. After being cleaned in gasoline for nearly an hour they were dried, all stains were removed and then they were pressed and, if necessary, repaired, he explained.

Few Big Plants.

"There are more people in the dry cleaning business proper than in probably any other," Mr. Gardiner asserted. "Out of thirty cleaners listed in the directory here only five have genuine cleaning establishments."

When the smaller establishments receive clothes for cleaning, if the clothes are very dirty, they send them to one of the five big cleaning plants. If they are not particularly dirty they brush them with gasoline and charge you $2."

Mr. Gardiner warned of the danger of keeping gasoline for cleaning purposes in homes. People who do not understand the use of gasoline, he said, were risking serious danger, and possible death, by keeping any large quantity of the liquid in their houses.

Jams Make Reputation.

Western jams have made Vancouver Island strawberries and the fruits of the interior of British Columbia famous on the Prairies and in Eastern Canada, Edward Taylor, of the Empress Manufacturing Company, stated.

In fact, such was the reputation of western fruits that B. C. jam manufacturers could sell their products as far East as they wished, he said. Mr. Taylor recalled that a Swiss chemist, seeing an exhibit of Empress jam at a Brussels exhibition years ago, had written to the Empress Company to ask the formula of the coloring matter put into its jams.

The company replied that the secret lay in the soil of Vancouver Island, where jam strawberries were grown.

"Next year we shall be in the market for 250 tons of strawberries," he announced.

SCHOONER ELSIE WINS TRIAL RACE

SHOW UNEASINESS

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)

New York, Oct. 12.—The market from the outset this morning displayed uneasiness, the consequence that lower prices were recorded throughout the list. The foreign exchange was extremely weak to-day and this had a tendency to steady prices. France were quoted early at 714, off 16; lire at 374, off 22, and marks 92, off 14, compared with Tuesday's close. German marks made a new low record to-day, the drop being due to nervousness over the decision of the League of Nations as to Upper Silesia.

PROTEST APPOINTMENT OF CHINESE WOMAN AS CITY SCHOOL TEACHER

Protest against the appointment of a Chinese woman as a teacher in the Rock Bay School was contained in a letter received by the School Board last night from the Asiatic Exclusion League, of Vancouver. The Board took no action on the matter. The Trustees, it is understood, have not changed their minds since they appointed Miss Lavina Dickman, the teacher in question.

"This is purely a matter of principle," wrote Charles F. Macaulay, secretary of the League. "The education of the youth of Canada is of paramount importance to the well-being and strengthening of this Dominion, and with the economic problem confronting us, owing to the large number of Orientals in this Province, and being brought face to face with the possibility that it may sooner or later become a political issue of no inconsiderable magnitude, we must see to it that the Oriental, while being given an education, must be under the guidance and supervision of one whose whole heart is centred in the British Empire."

"Such could never be the case with the Oriental, whether born in Canada or Canton. Their ideas handed down for hundreds of years are diametrically opposed to ours and the only way we can see how the greatest benefit from an educational standpoint can be obtained by them and for us is to disassociate them during school hours at least from all Oriental influence."

URGENT IMPROVEMENT OF GROUNDS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Parents Want Campus Made Fit for Use

Efforts to have the grounds of the Victoria High School put into such a condition that it will be possible to use them for athletic purposes will be made immediately, following a conference between the City School Board and the High School Parents' Teachers' Association executive last night.

Members of the Association, backed by the Trustees, will wait upon the City Council in the near future to urge that money be set aside by the Council for use in improving the grounds which at present are in what the parents call a "dilapidated" condition. The Council will be asked to allow as much money for this work as possible without delay. It will be pointed out that work on the High School grounds would provide some measure of relief in the unemployment situation in the approaching winter.

Comprehensive improvement. Headed by Dr. Paul Higgins, Frederick Parfitt and Mark Parfitt, members of the Parent-Teachers' Association, urged the School Board last night to put the original scheme for the improvement of the High School grounds into effect. This would cost something over $15,000, it was stated, and would make the grounds useful for various athletic games. This part of the project was deemed particularly necessary as High School athletic teams cannot play on their own campus now but must use the grounds of other schools. The $15,000 scheme also provides for the laying of cement walks around the school and the planting of large numbers of trees in the grounds.

Harry Smith, of the High School staff, explained that under present conditions it was almost impossible to carry on outdoor athletics on the school campus. It would be necessary to play rugby games this winter on various other grounds as no matches would be staged at the High School grounds, he said, would go a long way toward stimulating athletics, so necessary for the welfare of the school.

Need for Action. Trustee George Jay described in detail the negotiations which had preceded the selection of the High School site. "We should improve these grounds at the earliest possible time," he said, urging High School parents to use their influence to have the City Council increase money for work at the High School. He suggested that a delegation of parents might meet the City Council to press their views.

The condition of the High School grounds is a disgrace," Trustee Mrs. Spofford declared. "Representation by the parents, I believe, would influence the Council. If all the necessary money could not be obtained at least some work might be done."

Mr. Parfitt suggested that work on the High School grounds should be done to relieve unemployment next winter. The work would be of a permanent nature, he pointed out, and the city would get good value for its money.

PLAINTIFF CLAIMS HEAVY DAMAGES FOR RECENT PROSECUTION

Sum of $10,000 Asked in Damage Action

A $10,000 damage action for alleged wrongful and malicious prosecution was opened in the Supreme Court to-day before Mr. Justice Murphy in the action of Maber versus Thomson. Charles H. Maber is suing Frederick Lorenzo Thomson, both farmers of the Saanich municipality. The plaintiff claims $10,000 in damages, $142.25 for expenses, costs of the action, and such other relief as may be deemed necessary by the court. The action arose out of a police court prosecution in January last, when the plaintiff was charged with an assault upon the defendant on occasion of actual bodily harm, in that the plaintiff urged or is alleged to have urged, his dog upon the defendant. The police court case was heard in the Saanich court before Magistrate Jay, who committed the accused for trial. At the trial in the higher court before His Honor Judge Lammiman the charge was dismissed. Now the plaintiff seeks redress for alleged malicious prosecution.

The writ. The writ in the present action reads that "the defendant on the 21st day of January maliciously, and without reasonable or probable cause, prevented the plaintiff from carrying out his lawful business by unlawfully committing an assault upon the person of the defendant which occasioned actual bodily harm, by setting his dog to attack and wound the defendant, contrary to the criminal code."

J. A. Aikman is appearing for the plaintiff, with H. A. Maclean, K.C., for the defendant. The action was commenced with a large number of witnesses on either side to be called. His Honor Judge Lammiman will be a witness to the suit in relation to the higher court proceedings in the alleged malicious prosecution of the plaintiff. In the police court hearing the plaintiff stated his sheep had been impounded by the defendant and that he had put his own sheep dog over the fence to drive the sheep out. The defendant claimed that the sheep of plaintiff were trespassing and that the dog, when thrown over the fence, was urged to attack him.

ARION CLUB CONCERT PLEASURES

Attractive Programme by a Male Voice Choir

The Arion Club concerts are always musically interesting and of a high standard. Again last evening at the Empress Hotel ballroom in aid of the Y. W. C. A. building fund, the programme was none the less interesting, although there were found in the programme numbers that have become quite well-known during past years. These features seem to be part and parcel of the good things presented by the club. The popular male organization. Allusion is here made to "On the Sea," "Marietta," "Sweet and Low," etc. Throughout the evening the club gave a splendid account of themselves. The ensemble work was quite good, and under the watchful and discrete baton of the conductor E. Howard Russell, there was little left to be desired. Light and shade, expressive results, tone qualities, attack, enunciation, poising of effects were all worthy of much admiration, and much enjoyed by the present. Notable examples were in "Love's Appreciation" (Storek), perhaps one of the best bits of the evening. "Sweet and Low" (Stucken), the audience insisting upon a repetition, and in "Silent Recollections" (Pasche). Dudley Buck's "Nun of Nidaros," in which splendid support was given by Mrs. A. J. Gibson at the piano, was another treasured example of past singing, the lovely solo part in legato style, with the detached vocal accompaniment, sung by Mr. Pymman one of the first tenors, being exceedingly effective. Mrs. Harry Briggs, one of the assisting artists, elicited much applause. She took for her solos, "Life and Death" (Coleridge-Taylor), "Life's Prelude" (Landon Ronald), which suited her, a dramatic soprano, delightfully. Her voice is a gorgeous one, and she conveys the true significance of the song's message soulfully and intelligently to her hearers. In each case the charming singer had to respond to the hearty plaudits of the audience.

The appearance on the platform of a new arrival to Victoria, Drury Pryce, violinist, called for the immediate encouraging applause from an anticipatory audience, and in the well-known numbers, "Waltzer Preludes" (Wagner-Wilhelm), "Indian Lament" (Dvorak-Kreisler) and "Variations on a Theme of Corelli" (Tartini-Kreisler), lived up to their expectations.

He plays with facility, and with ample equipment in the different directions of violinistic art. His playing is clear-cut, his bowing and tone are alike, excellent, and he appears to make music on the violin for its own sake only. He is a disciple of Alfred Gibson and Gubey Papini, two of the best London violin teachers. The flattering reception he received at the conclusion of his numbers must have been quite gratifying to the soloist. Mrs. A. J. Gibson, accompanied the two assisting artists in her usual accomplished and adequate manner.

DIDN'T WANT TROUT. The owner of a private lake was annoyed to see a stranger fishing in his waters. He approached the trespasser and began to abuse him. "This lake," he said, "is privately owned, and I stocked it myself. You must go away at once."

"Just a minute," said the fisherman, calmly. "What did you stock the lake with?"

"Trout," was the answer. "And I won't have it."

"That's all right, sir," said the trespasser, unconcernedly. "I'm fishing for pike."

"Tut-tut," said the owner.

"That's all right, sir," said the trespasser, unconcernedly. "I'm fishing for pike."

"Tut-tut," said the owner.

PATTULLO SEEKS SETTLERS FOR B. C.

Minister of Lands Tells Englishmen of 200,000 Acres Available Here

London, Sept. 24.—(By Mail)—The Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands and Forests in the British Columbia Government, is at present on a visit to this country and the continent of Europe, amongst other things in furtherance of a scheme of colonization in British Columbia formulated by himself, the Premier of British Columbia, and the Minister of Agriculture. The Minister says in a special article this month.

Mr. Pattullo is seeking to augment the work carried on by the Agent-General for British Columbia in London in the direction of attracting the right class of people to settle on the splendid agricultural lands available in Central and other parts of British Columbia. Such men should preferably be of British birth, with a practical knowledge of agriculture and sufficient capital—say, at least, $2,500—to take up their own freehold.

200,000 Acres. In a recent interview Mr. Pattullo gave an example of the excellent land awaiting settlement in the rich valleys of British Columbia, 125 tract of some 200,000 acres which the Government has available in the Stuart River district, the soil of which is splendidly adapted to mixed farming, and the title to which can be obtained direct from the Government at prices ranging from $2.50 to $5 per acre. This area has the further advantage of being accessible to the railway. With regard to the question of irrigated fruit lands, the value of which is already recognized in this country, the British Columbia Government is itself developing an irrigation project in the Southern Okanagan, which should prove attractive to those who prefer fruit growing to general farming. This land is obtainable at from $125 to $250 per acre.

Determined Movement. British Columbia has never witnessed a determined colonization movement along comprehensive lines. Spasmodic attempts have been made during the past ten years, chiefly by speculative land companies, but the results achieved brought more harm than good. The price of lands soared beyond reason, with the result that thousands of acres of the finest lands in all the Province acquired such a high, fictitious value, that genuine settlers were unable to occupy them. With any hope of financial success, and these lands, selected as far back as 1907 to 1910, remain idle to this day. Information furnished by the Minister of Lands during a recent session of the Legislature showed that over 2,000,000 acres of surveyed land had been returned to the Government under the proportionate allotment legislation of 1915.

Urgent Problem. There can be no doubt, therefore, that the question of increasing the number of settlers on the land in British Columbia is an urgent problem, and one which is likely to continue for years to come. Only one acre in 508 of the Province's total area is at present under the plough, or one acre in every 80 which is suitable for agriculture. Even in 1917, the big farming year, only 213,000 acres were being cultivated. It must be borne in mind that, although the opportunities for those with any desire to go on the land in British Columbia remain great, yet there is no opening just now for the man who has neither capital nor practical knowledge, nor for the one who is seeking employment in an industrial or other capacity.

WOMEN AND OVERWORK. "Man may work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done." In order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well dressed and tidy, and continuously avoiding and suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they need help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden, and who, for the most part, are unable to get on the land. Vegetable Compound is a medicine with specific value which overcomes many of the worst forms of female complaints, as the letters constantly being published in this paper will prove. (Adv.)

WELL-KNOWN RESIDENT OF VICTORIA WEST DIES

A wide circle of friends mourn the death of Mrs. George T. Brown, which occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital on October 12. Mrs. Brown was the third daughter (Cassie) of Mr. and Mrs. George Monteith, 315 Maitland Street, and was born in Maitland, N. S., thirty-six years ago. She came with the family to Victoria twenty-one years ago and has lived in Victoria West through all these years. She was married to Mr. G. T. Brown nearly four years ago and since her marriage has lived at home in order to be with her father and mother. Mrs. Brown took an active interest in affairs in Victoria West and was connected with Wesley Methodist Church, being a member of the choir of that church for many years. It is a remarkable fact that

Do You Look Forward To a Good Night's Rest?

Do you regularly anticipate a refreshing sleep? Or do you dread going to bed, only to stare, sleepless, at the walls? The difference between sleeping and staring is simply a matter of nerves.

When your nervous system is in a sound condition, you are certain to sleep well. But when your nerves are worn out and beyond your control, your rest is broken and your awakening leaves you languid and irritable.

Doctors know that much of the nerve disorders result from tea and coffee drinking. The drugs in these drinks over-stimulate, often causing the serious ills which result from disturbing the regular bodily functions. It is for your health's sake that many doctors now say you should quit tea and coffee. Drink Postum, the delicious meal-time beverage instead! In flavor it is rich and satisfying.

Postum is fundamentally a nerve strengthener because it lets you get sound, restful sleep. Postum is a skillfully-made cereal beverage, and the secret of its popularity is its protection to health and its delicious flavor.

Ask your grocer for Postum. Drink this hot, refreshing beverage in place of tea or coffee for 10 days and see what a wonderful difference it will make in the way you feel.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Postum for Health "There's a Reason"
